

Thomas E. "Tommy" Campbell

Knight of Monroe

Monroe, Virginia

Inducted 1991

When jousting in Amherst County, Virginia the name of Campbell is one you will hear repeatedly with respect. Tommy Campbell has dedicated himself to the sport of jousting in a tradition befitting a member of the Campbell clan. Always there with assistance both in physical labor or inspiring new riders he has easily proved himself a worthy addition to the Hall of Fame.

Tommy began riding tournament at the age of 28 and everyone knows him by the fast horses he rides. He has taken first place titles at the Natural Chimneys Night Tournament, the Churchville tournament and 1st honor at Big Ben at Goshen. You will frequently find him in the winners circle at Amherst area tournaments.

He has helped to set up tracks and equipment for tournaments in Monroe and other surrounding jousts. He has helped train new horses and new riders in his area also.