

Norwood “Doggie” Clinedinst

Knight of Mt. Zion

Virginia

Inducted 1991

Mr. Norwood Clinedinst lived from 1911-1976. During the twenty-one years he competed in tournaments, “Doggie” as his colleagues affectionately knew him, was a fierce competitor who keenly enjoyed riding off ties for the honors. He was a skillful horseman and a good example for the younger generation.

He won and placed in numerous tournaments at Ed’s Park, Broadway, Staunton, Sangersville, Millboro Springs (Big Bend) and Hinsdale, Illinois. Also he won 2nd honor twice at Natural Chimneys.

In 1937 he was selected to travel with a small group of other expert jousts to Chicago to present a two-day exhibition of ring tournament at the Hinsdale Polor club. The event was very well received and attended.
