

Mark Eubank

Knight of Pleasant View V
Amherst County, Virginia
Inducted 2000

Mark Eubank is a member of the Amherst Jousting Club and hails from Pleasant View, Virginia. He started jousting when he was 8 years old on a horse named Pico. Pico started many jousts on their way and is fondly remembered.

When Mark began riding tournament there were only two classes, Amateur and Professional. Mark moved quickly to Professional status. He has served his club as Vice President.

There is long tournament history in the Eubank family. Mark's father, Jimmy Eubank and his grandfather, James are both members of the National Jousting Hall of Fame.

The Amherst Jousting Club is proud to say that "Double Trouble" is now a member of the Jousting Hall of Fame.
