

Connie Crites Biser

Lady of Just for Fun
Fisher, West Virginia
Inducted 1999

Connie Crites Biser, Lady of Just for Fun from Fisher, West Virginia, has been a member of the Knights of the South Branch Valley for over 20 years.

Connie has been charging down the track since a very young age with the help of her father, Albert Crites, and older sister, Donna Mongold – both of which are members of the National Jousting Hall of Fame. With their help, instructions and encouragement, she has become a very good rider and joustier. She has participated in and won various tournaments in West Virginia and Virginia including the Moorefield Poultry Festival, Moorefield Heritage Weekend, Tri-County Fair, Treasure Mountain Festival, Elkins Forest Festival, Natural Chimneys, Yorktown Bi-centennial Joust and has placed in the National Championships.

Connie has helped introduce new riders to her hometown club and has always been there with a helping hand when needed. She is proud to be involved in the sport of Jousting and the Knights of the South Branch Valley are proud to induct Connie Crites Biser into the National Jousting Hall of Fame.

