

Scotty Crites

Knight of Critestown

Moorefield, WV

Inducted into the Hall of Fame 2008

Scotty Crites of Moorefield, West Virginia, started his jousting career nearly 20 years ago when he purchased his horse Whiskey, who he still owns today. Since becoming a member of the Knights of the South Branch Valley, he has participated and won many crowns in tournaments of the Tri-County area of West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland. Scotty has won in the Tri-County Fair, the Poultry Festival, the Treasure Mountain Festival, National Chimneys and Fairplay.

In 1991 Scotty won the Novice National Championship in Washington, D.C. He won the West Virginia State Championship at the Forest Festival, in Elkins, WV, in both 2002 and 2004. In 2003 he won the National Semi-Pro Championship in Virginia.

When Scotty's not jousting, he enjoys trail riding with family and friends. The Knights of the South Branch Valley are proud to induct Scotty Crites, the Knight of Critestown, to the National Jousting Hall of Fame.

