

Catherine “Cathy” Eyre

Maid of Adventure Hill
Kingsville, Maryland
Inducted 1995

Cathy is an active member of the Amateur Jousting Club of Maryland, Inc. Her 24 years of involvement with the sport of Jousting has included serving as corresponding secretary of her local club and serving on several committees including the Riding Rules Committee. She represented the AJC on the Maryland Jousting Tournament Association's Riding Rules Committee and has participated in many, many meetings at the state and national level.

Cathy has chaired numerous jousting tournaments for the Amateur Jousting Club and participated in many parades and exhibitions to promote Jousting. Cathy has also participated in jousting clinics for 4-H groups and has sponsored many new members into her local club. Cathy, along with her husband, Dennis, has made presentations to committee members in Annapolis, Maryland to keep “Jousting Maryland's Official State Sport”. Cathy considers it her special jousting project to support her husband through his service as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the AJC for over 15 years and his office as President for at least 12 years.

Cathy has won the title of Amateur (Class II) State Champion and also Semi-Professional (Class III) State Champion.

