

FREDERICK Y. FISHER

Frederick Y. Fisher, Knight of Just For Fun II, lives in Moorefield, W.Va. His interest in jousting began in 1959. He held the office in the local club as Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. Fisher won many 1st place awards in local areas and at Natural Chimneys, Virginia. He has won the following state awards: 1968 First place, 1960 First place in Cumberland, Md. fair, 1968 First place at Virginia State Fair in Richmond, 1968 First place at Natural Chimney, Va. 1986 First Maid at Fourth of July Festival in Moorefield and numerous other awards. He participated in the National Tournament in Washington but never placed.

Frederick Fisher displayed jousting skills to spectators, provided information on techniques of Jousting to an author for a book, and he showed the personality to keep a crowd entertained.

The sport of jousting is a heritage handed down from his grandfather to father to son. Frederick always showed good sportsmanship. He has helped promote the sport of jousting to younger riders.

We are proud to see Mr. Frederick Y. Fisher's name listed in a place of honor among the other great jousting in the National Hall of Fame

Entered National Hall of Fame -- 1987

West Virginia

Frederick Y. Fisher
Knight of Just For Fun II
Moorefield, WV
Inducted 1987

