

WILLIAM C. HUDSON

Inducted into the Hall of Fame
1989

Amherst, Virginia

William Hudson has been riding in the sport of jousting for over twenty (20) years. He is known as the "Knight of Clifford". Due to an accident he is unable to joust any longer; buy that didn't stop William. He has helped judge and announce tournaments for years. He is a member of the Amherst County Jousting Club.

William Hudson has held office of President in the Amherst Club. His leadership encouraged riders of all ages and helped to keep jousting fans coming to tournaments year after year. He has helped in many different areas of jousting. He has shown good sportsmanship and fellowship, leaving a trail of followers by making many friends.

It is with great honor that we induct William C. Hudson in to the National Jousting Hall of Fame.

William Hudson

Knight of Clifford

Amherst, VA

Inducted 1989

No Photo Available